SOCIETY NEWS AND CHAT.

The at home given by General and Mrs. Spinola on Wednesday afternoon, from 4 to 7, at the Arlington, in honor of Hon. John M. Riley and his bride, came off in a most brilliant manner, although the guests of honor were not present, owing to the severe and sudden illness of a member of the bride's family. Over a thousand invitations were sent out, but the new and commodious rooms of the Arlington, where the reception was held, never at any one time seemed crowded. The spacious apartments were adorned with tall palms, white lilies, and pink and white azaleas, with pots of roses on the mantels. The ball-room beyond was for the time converted into a banquet hall, with a buffet across the far end, and on it, besides every delicacy of the season, there was a superb oval basket of La France, Nephros, and Jack roses. There was a fine band of music, and the belles and beaux greatly enjoyed dancing. Mrs. Spinola stood by the main entrance, surrounded by a score of pretty assistants. She wore a superb Paris gown of sage-green brocade, en traine, trimmed with fine point lace and passementerie. Her diamonds were a full set of India solitaires. Beside her stood Mrs. Huston, wife of the United States Treasurer, in a sweeping gown of black velvet, with a flounced front of rare point lace. She wore a diamond pendant on her white brooch. Mrs. W. Owens is a pretty spotman, whom the Greek costume is especially becoming. Her soft, clinging robe of cream crepe, combined with pinkish lavender velvet, made a most effective costume. Mrs. David H. Sellers, from Connerville, Ind., wore a handsome gown of black velvet with gold trimmings; Mrs. Flagg, of New York, butternut crepe; Miss Miller, blue silk and gauze; Miss Bertha Lincoln, blue crepe; Miss Isabel Henslow, yellow India silk; Miss Dezenodoff, white silk striped gauze; Miss Rhee Hixson, of Kentucky, white crepe; Miss Daley Wilson, blue faille; Miss Besse Wilson, gold brocade and gold lace; Mrs. R. B. Englich, gray flowered brocade, en traine, pearl ornaments; Mrs. I. B. Henderson, old-rose faille; Miss Rutherford, blue silk and gauze. Mrs. Powers, wife of Rev. Dr. Powers, sang four times most acceptably, her fine voice filling the rooms. Miss Bertha Lincoln also sang, and Miss Dezenodoff contributed her share to the musical program. One of the most notable guests was Wilson Barrett. Among the callers were Mrs. Carlisle, in heliotrope faille; Mrs. Butterworth, Mr. Commissioner Taylor, wife, and daughter; General and Mrs. Hooker, Mrs. R. F. Robb, Mrs. McCulloch, Mrs. Henry Willard, Mrs. Herberts, Mrs. Senator Morrill and Miss Swan, Captain and Mrs. Haycock, Col. DeJannet and Ferdinand DeJannet, Col. and the Misses Brewer, General and Mrs. Green B. Baum, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson, the Corns, with the ladies, in bright, picturesque gowns; Mrs. Senator Stewart, Mrs. Senator Jones, Mrs. Briggs, ("Olivie"), Mrs. and Miss Grosvenor, Mrs. and Miss Thompson, Mrs. J. W. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln, (Bessie Beech), Mrs. Hicks, (Sophie Sparkle), Madame Romero, Madame Guzman, Mrs. Nordhoff, Mrs. Justice Fuller and the Misses Fuller, General and Mrs. Wright, Mrs. George Adams, Mrs. Goodnight, Mrs. Sealey, Mrs. Burrows, Mrs. Rutherford, Mr. Frank Carpenter, Miss Cynthia Cleveland, Miss Hanson, the artist; Mrs. Lander, Mrs. Roessle, Colonel and Mrs. Staples, Mrs. Field, Dr. and Mrs. Bland, Dr. and Mrs. Corey, Mrs. Justice Miller, Colonel and Mrs. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Cabell, Mrs. Pugh, Jr., Mrs. Reeside, Miss Rosecrans, Miss Campbell, the artist; Mrs. and Miss Bigelow, Mrs. John Wilson, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge, Mrs. Springer, and Colonel and Mrs. Fleming. Gen. Spinola performed the duties of host most effectively, and introduced an innovation by calling to his assistance the members of the New York City delegation—Mr. Turner, Mr. Dumphy, Mr. Covert, Mr. Guesshimer, Mr. Blount, Mr. Sherman, Governor Steuart, and Mr. Quinn.

The past week was one of many handsome entertainments. Among them that of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hutchinson, of Massachusetts avenue, on Wednesday evening, was notable for the elegance of the appointments and the large number of fashionable people in attendance. The floral decorations were artistically beautiful. Palms and blooming plants were disposed about the hall, where a band of music was stationed, and the handsome drawing-rooms were fragrant with masses of Jacqueminot roses set in tall vases. In the dining-room a handsome collation, consisting of croquettes, salads, ices, fruit, and confections, was served. The table had a lovely centerpiece of maiden-hair ferns. Mrs. Hutchinson wore a handsome gown of blue and white brocade; Miss Hutchinson, white silk gauze; the Misses Grace and Lena Hutchinson, who are still in the school-room, simple toilets of white; Miss Daniel, black satin and lace. The other ladies, consisting were Miss Mildred Fuller, the Misses Williamson, and Miss Greenleaf. The guests included Gen. Schofield, Gen. Van Vleet, Secretary and Mrs. Noble, the Chief Justice and Mrs. Fuller, Colonel and Mrs. Ernst, Mr. and Mrs. Otterwalte, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bigelow, Madame Mendonza, Madame Romero, Madame Zegarra, Justice and Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Field, the Misses Condit-Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Whittemore, Miss Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Guinier, and Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Greer, Senator and Mrs. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Veazey, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Walton, Commander and Mrs. Hoff, Lieut. Haines, Capt. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Steele, Miss Halstead, ex-Speaker and Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. William Carlisle, Senator and Mrs. Culom, Miss Fisher, Mr. John W. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Soule, Miss Soule, Mr. and Mrs. Seaton Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson, Mr. Acklan, Mr. Clarence Bell, Miss Maury, Miss Cabell, Mrs. E. W. Halford, Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson, Captain and Mrs. Rodgers, General and Mrs. Spinola, Miss Swan, and Senator and Mrs. Dolph.

Two very beautiful entertainments were given on Monday—one by Miss Mary Breckinridge, and the other by Senator and Mrs. Squires. The latter was in the form of one of the most elaborate dinners of the season. It took place at the Arlington, and Mr. and Mrs. Warner Miller, of New York, were the guests of honor. The table was lavishly adorned with hybrid and Jacqueminot roses and fragrant apple blossoms. The guests were, besides the guests of honor, Senator and Mrs. J. P. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Hon. and Mrs. R. P. Flower, Lieutenant and Mrs. Clover, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Foster, Mrs. Furnion, General and Mrs. Anson G. McCook, Miss Miller, Senator Allison, and Miss Flower. Miss Breckinridge's lunch was a lovely entertainment. It was given in compliment to Miss Shepard, of New York, and Miss Clay, of Kentucky. The violet scheme of decoration was beautifully carried out in the canes and shades and the floral decorations. There were also costly bouquets of violets for the girls. The guests were sixteen in number. They were the Misses Windom, Miss Clay, Miss Shepard, Miss Mildred Fuller, Miss Grace Davis, Miss Dalzell, Miss Proctor, Miss Miller, Miss Carter, Miss Dahlgren, Miss Butler, Miss Ernst, Miss Fleming, Miss Almy, and Miss Edie. There were a number of callers during the afternoon.

Lieutenant and Mrs. R. M. G. Brown were among the entertainers of the past gay week. They gave a charming party on Thursday night in honor of Miss Sara Elkins, Miss Grace Davis, and Miss Lella Alexander, daughter of Dr. Alexander, of the Army. The affair was delightfully informal. Mrs. Brown received the company, while the young guests of honor followed their own sweet will in standing or sitting just wherever was most agreeable for the moment. At 10 o'clock the supper-room was opened and a sumptuous repast served. Among the guests were Miss Edie, the Misses Zegarra, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert McKee, Lieut. Morrell, Miss Condit-Smith, Mr. Alex. Oliphant, of New Jersey; Mr. Clara Ray, Miss McCeney, the Misses Mendonza, Mr. Mendonza, Mr. F. B. Loomis, Mr. Townsend, of New York; Mr. William Acklan, the Misses Preston, Mr. Edward Hannigan, Mr. Harry Sullivan, Mr. George Hendrickson, Miss Sadie Almy, Miss Wood, Miss Mary Breckinridge, Mr. Von Swindern, Mr. and Mrs. Lowery, Mr. Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. Guzman, the Misses Horsman, Lieut. Selfridge, Mr. E. A. Trecoot, Miss Trecoot, Mr. Davidge, Miss Harriott Hutchinson, Miss Windom, Miss Wanamaker, and Mr. Charles McCawley.

The Travel Club met at Strathmore Arms, as usual, on Monday evening, Dr. Presbrey in the chair. After the reading of the minutes and some music by Mrs. Grace Spaulding Pierson and Mrs. Connelman, of Baltimore, Mrs. M. H. Mohl proceeded to read an essay on "Peasant Life in Russia." She began by stating that she could not claim to have traveled in Russia, but depended upon reading for her views, which were much more modified than Tolstoy's or Tourgenieff's representations. After more music Mrs. Haines, who had traveled extensively and spent much time in Constantinople, gave an illustrated talk entitled, "Behind the Yashashak." Her object-lesson consisted of articles of domestic clothing and utility. This lecturer fulfilled one of the original ideas of the club by filling the office of dragoman in giving practical illustrations of scenes and countries visited. Next Monday evening Mr. Croizant takes the Travel Club around the world in sixty minutes, and will thus break Nelly Bly's record. The club still keeps up its prestige, the large hall of Strathmore being well filled on each night with the regular membership and invited guests.

Mrs. Pierce and Miss Elizabeth Pierce, of Boston, are making preparations to close their winter residence here, on Vermont avenue, to return to their home, on Commonwealth avenue, Boston. Miss Pierce has been greatly admired in Washington society for her beauty, as well as her fine musical abilities. She has been most generous in lending the attraction of her lovely voice in aid of many good works during the past winter, and her many friends hope for her return next season. Miss Pierce's aunt, Mrs. Ellen J. Foster, and her handsome son sailed for Europe on the 19th instant.

Miss Sara Elkins came over from New York to attend Mrs. McKee's dancing party at the White House, Wednesday evening. She received many congratulations on her happy fate in having her "course of true love run smooth," as her engagement just announced, to Mr. Alexander C. Oliphant, of Trenton, N. J., meets with the entire approval of the old folks on both sides. Mr. Oliphant graduated from Annapolis in 1881. He resigned from the service recently. The wedding is not to take place before autumn, when it will be celebrated in grand style at Elkins, W. Va.

Miss Mary Landon King and Mr. William F. Turner, of Holly Grove, Prince George's County, Md., were married on Wednesday evening at St. Andrew's Church, Rev. Joseph B. Perry officiating. The bride was married by her father, Mr. Rudolph King. She wore a stylish traveling costume of stone-colored cloth trimmed with velvet. Her bouquet was of lilies of the valley. Miss Putnam was maid of honor; Lieut. D. A. Jenkins best man. The ushers were Messrs. Sidney Hill, Lieut. J. H. Wallace, Norman L. King, and William P. Moore.

Mr. Paul Putzki, whose studio is at 1420 New York avenue, and who numbers among his pupils Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Russell Harrison, the Misses Morton, Mrs. Rathbone, and Mrs. Reeside, gave a highly satisfactory and successful exhibition of the work of his pupils and himself on Friday and Saturday at his studio. Cards of invitation were sent out early in the week.

The Secretary of State invited the Pan-Americans and a number of other guests to visit Mount Vernon last Tuesday on the United States steamer Despatch. The occasion proved most enjoyable to all on board. A handsome lunch was served. Nearly all the members of the Diplomatic Corps, with the ladies of their families, were of the party.

The "Quodlibet Luncheon," given so successfully by the ladies of the Homeopathic Hospital during several seasons past, will be resumed this week, the first of the series to be held on Wednesday next, at the residence of Mrs. Lewis Clephane, 1225 K street.

The many friends of Mrs. J. W. Paxson, who has been visiting Mrs. W. S. Jackson, regret that lady's departure for her home, in Chicago, yesterday. Mrs. Paxson, by her charming manner, has won the esteem of all who met her.

The marriage of Miss Lella Jessie Cropp, of Upper Norwood, Surrey, England, and Mr. James Carroll Frazer, of Martinsburg, W. Va., will take place on Wednesday, May 7, at 8 P. M., Rev. Dr. Douglass officiating.

Mrs. W. E. Reynolds, wife of Lieut. W. E. Reynolds, of the Revenue Marine, who is with her husband at New Bedford, Mass., will arrive on Monday to make a short visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Collins, of West Washington.

The marriage of Mr. William Gibson and Miss Todd takes place on Wednesday evening next at the New York-avenue Presbyterian Church.

Justice and Mrs. Field, with Mrs. Condit-Smith and daughter, will sail for Europe early in June to spend the summer.

Dr. W. O. Bradley, of New Haven, Conn., and Mrs. and Miss Dickerman are stopping at the Langham for a few days.

FOR SOCIETY PEOPLE.

A Change of Management at Woodley Inn

Arrangements have been perfected for the opening Wednesday of Woodley Inn, on the Tenleytown road, under the management of James R. Keenan, of the Shoreham. On this occasion the public are cordially invited to be present, but after Wednesday no one will be permitted access without a card of admission. These cards can be obtained by addressing Manager Keenan and an iron-bound rule has been adopted excluding improper persons from the inn. It is the purpose of the management to cater exclusively to the best people at the Capital. A large party has been made up to leave the Shoreham in a tally-ho coach Wednesday, and the indications are that an enjoyable gathering will be a feature of the inauguration of the new enterprise. Music by a select orchestra and refreshments during the afternoon will be among the features of the entertainment Wednesday. Being easy of access from Washington it is the intention of the management to fit up about thirty-five commodious apartments for the accommodation of summer boarders, and good terms can be made by those who desire to be near their business houses during the hot season. Woodley Inn is located upon one of the highest points adjacent to the Capital, and within a few minutes' walk of the Capitol, the President's residence, and the residence of Secretary Whitney. Cars of the new electric line pass the door, and there is no difficulty in obtaining transportation to and from the city at all hours.

DEAFNESS and CATARRH

Well-known and highly-respected citizens of Washington give the following statements regarding

DR. LIGHTHILL'S TREATMENT.

FROM MR. T. E. ROESSLE,
Proprietor of the Arlington.

"THE ARLINGTON,"
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6, 1890.

My Dear Dr. Lighthill:

It gives me great pleasure to state that you effected a remarkable cure of deafness and discharge from the ears in the case of my cousin, Marcus C. Roessle, and that the case has proved as permanent as it was radical. I feel sure that without your skillful aid my cousin would have been a deaf man all his life. Knowing of other cases in which you have been equally successful, I cheerfully give you leave to refer to me at any time, and hope that your practice in Washington will prove a distinguished success. Yours truly,

T. E. ROESSLE.

Statement from Mr. James J. Mercer.

OFFICE OF "THE REPUBLIC,"
1308 PA. AVE.,
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 18, 1890.

Dr. Lighthill:

DEAR SIR: Having suffered for a long time from a severe and obstinate catarrhal affection, which heretofore defied all medical treatment, I felt impelled to call on you for advice, and I must say, while I was very favorably impressed with the thorough manner of your examination, I felt somewhat doubtful as to the efficacy of your treatment, because of its extreme mildness. But since I have given it a fair trial, resulting, as it did, in such decided benefit to me—in fact, amounting substantially to a cure—I deem it but the simplest justice to you to express my entire confidence in the same. It had always seemed to me most reasonable that remedies, as far as possible, should be applied directly to the seat of the disease, but how to do this to all the air passages and minute cavities of the head, to the middle ear, or to the air cells of the lungs, was the question.

The old system of atomization, as I had found by trial, did not accomplish this at all, for the spray condensed so quickly that instead of reaching the larynx or upper nasal passages it simply forced against the back part of the mouth or upon the floor of the nostrils, while the actual disease is in the upper cavities, and beyond the reach of the spray; but by your method remedies are transformed into a consistency finer even than a mist and as impalpable as smoke; in fact, remaining suspended in the air, and thus can be easily introduced into the most remote cavity of the head or to any portion of the respiratory tract without the least unpleasant sensation, and yet so exceedingly effective that, to my surprise and great satisfaction, I felt a great improvement the very next day. And this first experience has but repeated itself each day following until now, when I am glad to be able to call myself well, and thus it is that my doubt changed into entire confidence. And if this frank and unhesitating testimony of mine shall avail to give others confidence to obtain like benefit, I shall be more than glad to have written it.

I need only say, in concluding, that you are at liberty to publish this wherever you may choose.

Very truly, yours,

JAMES J. MERCER.

READY TO WEAR
PERRY'S.

We shall open to-morrow morning a line of LADIES' WHITE LAWN SUITS. We have labored hard in the collection of these suits. Been extremely careful in our selections and in our efforts to see them made up in a manner that leaves no room for fault-finding. There are some patterns—new ones—that are not one-half as pretty as those shown last year—but the others—those we selected and turned over to be draped—are perfect beauties. They are priced where you will be surprised to find them. Take a pencil and paper and figure up the bare cost of materials and you will wonder. But don't let it worry you. Enjoy the offerings—and leave the rest to us.

Gentlemen can get their suits ready made to the entire satisfaction. Why should not the ladies be as fortunate?

Ours are gracefully cut and becomingly trimmed—not the rough, dowdy affairs that have done so much to prejudice you against ready-made dresses. Such are caricatures—not OURS. OURS will readily conform themselves to the curves of your form and fit you like a glove. Can your dressmaker cut you a pattern and do more? Yes, she can charge you her price—and that means a great deal.

At $5 we have a good quality Lawn, plain skirt, with two rows of wide inserting; round waist, trimmed with more inserting. $5.

At $6.50, the "get-up" is a little more elaborate. The skirt loses some of its plainness, and is relieved with two rows of wide ruffled embroidery around the front, plain back. More of the embroidery decorates the basque. $6.50.

At $7.50, A Plain Drop Skirt of all-over embroidery, with extra inside skirt. Basque of the same, high shoulders, with a vest front. $7.50.

At $8, Handsomely Embroidered Skirt, fronts, with plain backs, relieved only by wide tucks, which surround the bottom. A match basque with the high shoulders. $8.

Another style of the same price is of all-over embroidery, with a drop skirt. Basque with a vest and high shoulders, full sleeves, tucked. This is $8, too.

At $10.50, Irish Point Embroidery, hemstitched over the tucks. Basque of the all-over embroidery, with vest and pointed shoulders. $10.50.

At $11 we have reproduced the same effect in better quality.

Another style at $11 is a hemstitched embroidery, full plain skirt and fancy vest in basque, rising shoulders. $11.

At $13.50, Elaborately Embroidered Drop Skirt. Basque with extra full sleeves and shoulders, with seven dainty tucks down the vest. $13.50.

At $14, Extra Quality All-over Embroidery with a zouave basque—rich—$14.

As we said, these suits are made on our order, after our minute instructions, and duplicate them you cannot. If any changes have to be made, they are at our expense, and no annoyance or inconvenience to you.

SILK WAISTS and LADIES' SHIRTS.

At $9.50 we have produced a handsome Surah Silk Waist in black, cardinal, pink, and navy blue. Tucked front, back and sleeves; the latter are full and the shoulders are high. A neat belt draws the waist in place. $9.50.

At $7, Surah Silk, gathered front and back, belt and cuffs, and the high shoulders. $7.

At $6.50 and $7.50, Plaid and Stripe Silk Sailor Blouses, with the large collars. $6.50 and $7.50.

At $5.50, Fancy Stripe, Wash Silk Blouse, with a yoke back and full front. $5.50.

From $1.50 to $3, Four grades of Fancy Stripe Wool and Wool and Cotton Outing Cloths, made up in the same style precisely as the wash silks above. $1.50 to $3.

Shirts are going to be very popular this summer. One thing you must guard against—don't get loud patterns. You can't wear every pattern that looks well on the gentlemen. It is unbecoming. We will show you an assortment of designs that are in good taste.

The "Vassar" is the best indorsed shirt in the market. They come in fancy stripes and plain white, with (French) bosoms. $3.50 to $1.75.

At the same price you will find a large bouquet of stripe patterns in Percalines, with either roll or standing collar. $1.50 and $1.75.

Think now—are you going to wear white dresses this summer? Undoubtedly you are, and if quality and price are good influences you will wear OURS. Then the waists—there are a number of occasions when you will wish you had one handy. Why not get it and have it within reach when you want it? That time is sure to come. And the shirts? Get them.
